

Week of Compassion Board of Directors Fall 2020 Meeting

ACTION ITEM

The Board of Stewards of Week of Compassion declares the meeting on October 29, 2020 conducted virtually via Zoom to be its second regular meeting of 2020. Meeting in person at one location has been determined to be inadvisable in accordance with the Coronavirus Disease 2019 guidelines published by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention regarding individual risks and travel restrictions. The restrictions imposed by various states and local jurisdictions regarding public health impact each member of the Board of Stewards and Staff members in different ways and would prevent in person participation by many.